SCHOFIELD MEN ON EDGE FOR BIG FIELD DAY TOMORROW

Entire Garrison Is Interested in the Program of Sports

The Schofield Barracks, Sept. 25. The quarterly Field Day of the entire Garrison will take place tomorrow, the 27th, on the reviewing grounds northeast of the First Infantry cantonment. All visitors will be welcome and ample accommodations to view the sports will be provided. The program will be a varied and interesting one and great rivalry is expected. These meets coming at the end of each three months throughout the year serve to foster friendly feelings among the organizations composing the garrison and the list of candidates for places in the various events is large so that the winners represent the choice of a long string from each regiment.

The honors of the June meeting fell to the Second Infantry, but the coming one looks like a victory for the First Infantry, with the Fifth Cavalry the strongest contender. The Artillery battalion, though numerically weakest, is always to be counted on in any athletics and may prove the surprise when the totals are counted. Special events for the distinctive arms of the service are sandwiched in the mixed program to keep the troops, batteries or companies on the jump for individual honors.

Substantial cash prizes are awarded by the various Post Exchanges and a novel feature of the awarding of prizes is the designated officer handing out the shekels within a minute after the conclusion of the race or other contest.

The program, that will commence at 9 a. m. sharp, follows:

1. One mile relay. Team of 4 men each battalion or squadron.
2. Equipment race. One man each company.
3. First leg. Tag-of-war. Team from each cantonment.
4. Second leg. Tag-of-war.
5. Mounted rescue work. One team each troop.
6. Three-legged race. Two yards. One team each organization.
7. Signal bearer contest (Hospital Corps). Three entries required.
8. Stake driving contest. One section each battery of Field Artillery.
9. Final tug-of-war.

The officials designated to conduct the affair are:

Referee—Lt. Col. W. Y. Stanger, Second Infantry.

Athletic Officer—Capt. E. P. Orton, Fifth Cavalry.

Judges—Major E. V. Smith, Second Infantry; 1st Lt. N. B. Rehkopf, 1st Field Artillery; 1st Lt. D. R. Rodney, 5th Cavalry; 2d Lt. S. W. Schofield, 1st Infantry.

Starter—2d Lt. H. Shekerjian, 1st Infantry.

Timers—1st Lt. C. H. Wright, 2d Infantry; 2d Lt. A. W. Hanson, 5th Cavalry; 2d Lt. F. W. Bowley, 1st Field Artillery.

Announcer, 2d Lt. J. C. Hatie, 1st Infantry.

Clerk of the Course—1st Lt. G. W. Harris, 1st Infantry.

Asst. Clerk—2d Lt. F. C. V. Crowley, 5th Cavalry.

POLITICAL NEWS AND NOTES

Inability on the part of the Home Rulers to secure their political timber for different offices in the legislature and county, resulted in the disbandment of the Home Rule county convention, which was held last night in Nottley hall.

With President and Vice President Nottley and Kalauokalani, Sr., in the chair, the Home Rulers assembled last night to frame up their ticket for the coming campaign.

Unfortunately, however, out of about sixty people assembled the only available candidates for different offices were D. Kalauokalani, Sr., for senator; D. Kaona, for representative, and J. A. Baker and M. O. Makekau, for supervisors.

The executive committee, with Wm. Mossman as chairman, was instructed to select other aspiring candidates for offices and report to the general assembly. Falling in this, the committee will, it is said, recommend to the Home Rule assembly for the endorsement of the Republican or Democratic candidates, who have been regularly nominated by their parties.

The Home Rule party, which has existed for many years, since the annexation of these islands to the United States, is gradually but surely falling off. But the leaders, true to their colors, are still holding on.

Nottley stated yesterday that he was prepared to go out in the campaign as soon as he is able. It is expected that he will fire his first gun on Hawaii, from the top of Mauna Kea, and from there he will go to Maui, thence to Oahu and Kauai.

The new Democratic county central committee held its first meeting yesterday afternoon and took up the question of filling the vacancy on the ticket for the position of county clerk. Chairman Rivenburgh named a committee, with W. Kinslea as chairman, which will receive and discuss the applications of all would-be candidates and report by October 15.

A special committee was appointed to secure suitable headquarters and to take up the work of raising funds among the faithful to run the campaign.

J. M. Poepoe, Democratic candidate for the House from the Fifth District, is considered to have a strong following among the Hawaiians now, although a number of years ago he was in their bad graces through a stand he took while in the Legislature against what they thought were their interests. He is a lawyer and is well known and considered to have excellent qualifications for the position to which he aspires.

SUPERVISORS PASS ORDINANCE ON DANCE HALLS

At a meeting last night, the board of supervisors unanimously passed the ordinance prohibiting the use of dance halls for the purpose of holding a dance. There was no debate. Those present with Mayor F. E. Weng, Amara, Arnold, Dwight, Kluge, Low and McCallan.

Cost of the ordinance service in all branches for August, as reported by Superintendent Costa, was $252.12, including $62.99 overhead charge, and the receipts were $377.50, making the net cost $124.62.

Major W. C. Neville, commanding the 1st S. Marine Corps, wrote complaining of trash accumulating about the city incinerator and asking that some disposition be made of the stuff so as to stop the nuisance in the vicinity of the Marine barracks.

George A. Snow, secretary of the 20th International Irrigation Congress, wrote to remind the board that it had not appointed the five delegates to that body allotted to it, and enclosing a "suggested interview" to "hand to your local paper." The congress meets Sept. 30 to October 3.

A circular was received from the Parrett Manufacturing Company, saying it was sent at the request of the Honolulu Iron Works, mentioning literature forwarded under separate cover relating to "Tarvia," a material for resurfacing old roads. The offer of a "small commission" in the circular caused a smile to circulate.

Resolutions appropriating $16,224, $635 and $550 respectively for various improvements and repairs passed third reading.

On motion of Arnold, the clerk was directed to advertise for fire hose on specifications to be furnished by the chief.

Low called for an opinion from the attorney as to whether the Rapid Transit Company could be compelled by the board to raise the blocks between the tracks on Queen street to grade, or would it be necessary to make the demand through the superintendent of public works.

After Deputy Attorney Milverton had advised that the proceeding should be through the superintendent of public works, Arnold asked if the blocks had not been laid by the county and the cost paid to the county by the company.

Dwight and the mayor both answered that the work was done by the 1907-1908 county board of which both were members. The matter was referred to the road committee to have the wrong condition repaired.

Repairs For Meyers Street. J. P. Mendonca appeared before the board and made an eloquent plea for the repairing of Meyers street, Kalihi, and the placing of a light at the school gate. He said that officials of the previous board promised to repair the road before they went out of office, its disgraceful condition being due to the hauling of material from the county quarry.

Dwight promised that the road committee would go out and have a look at the road.

"No use to go up and look at it," exclaimed Low warmly. "We have from Vineyard to King street. To make assurance doubly sure, the matter was referred to the road committee with power to act.

Fred Harrison was the only bidder for concrete posts for Nuanu road fences.

Low spoke for repairs to Young street, and it was voted to top-dress it with material from Kalakaua avenue.

Action on Ah Leong's appeal from the building inspector's refusal of a permit for a tenement on Liliha street is reported elsewhere.

Adjournment was taken on Friday evening at 7:30 for the passage of payrolls.

In an opinion by Chief Justice Robertson, the supreme court has affirmed the decision of Judge Whitney dismissing the libel in divorce of Mildred Bruns against Henry C. Bruns, alleging extreme cruelty. It is found that "extreme cruelty" as a ground for divorce implies physical injury, either actual or apprehended, and that there was no evidence of such a thing in this case. Sulkiness and coolness on the part of the husband, causing the wife much unhappiness, was the burden of the complaint, but the court says, "A state of unhappiness involving mental suffering which is not such as to impair the health does not amount to extreme cruelty."
